Consent for Evaluation and/or Assessment

The Alaska Early Intervention/Early Learning Program (EI/ILP) is required to obtain your written consent before completing an evaluation to determine if your child is eligible for EI/ILP services and/or an assessment to determine if certain services are needed. For the evaluation or assessment, multiple methods will be used including evaluation tools, observations of your child, and gathering information from you, other family members, caregivers, medical and other professionals. The evaluation or assessment is at no cost to you. The results are kept in your child's early intervention record. No information about the evaluation and/or assessment will be shared with anyone or any agency outside of EI/ILP unless you provide written consent for it to be shared.

I understand that my consent is voluntary and that I can choose, at any time, not to have my child evaluated and/or assessed even after signing this form. I understand that if I choose not to consent to this evaluation and/or assessment, my child will not be evaluated and/or assessed. If I do not consent for an evaluation to determine initial or ongoing eligibility, my child will not be able to receive early intervention services under the EI/ILP program. If I do not consent for an assessment to determine if specific services are needed, my child will not be able to receive those services.
